Description :

PDF-c4c3c | An epigram is a distilled thought, a few words equaling many. Webster's Dictionary defines an epigram as A concise, clever, often paradoxical statement. In the ancient world, the first epigrams were inscriptions in verse, carved into the stones of tombs, statues, temples, and triumphal arches. Later, with the advent of paper, they evolved into brief morsels of insight, often witty or satirical. I ... I Thought So: A Book of Epigrams
