Description :

PDF-ef6e4 | Ways with Words, first published in 1983, is a classic study of children learning to use language at home and at school in two communities only a few miles apart in the south-eastern United States. 'Roadville' is a white working-class community of families steeped for generations in the life of textile mills; 'Trackton' is an African-American working-class community whose older generations grew up... Ways with Words: Language, Life and Work in Communities and Classrooms (Cambridge Paperback Library)
